THURSDAY, April 3, 1856

FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

Washington, April 4.

S nate.—Mr. Seward gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill supplementary to the copywrightlaw of 1831:
The Senate then took up the hill making an extra allowance to Geo. P. Marsh, for diplomatic services on a special mission to Greece.
The Senate after dehate postponed it.
The House hill appropriating three hundred thousand dollars for restoring and maintaigneace with the Indian trihes of the Pacific coast, and one hundred and twenty thousand dollars for guipowder was then passed.
Mr. Collamer resumed his remarks in relation to Kansas affairs. He contended that the Missourians went into the Territory to control the elections, fearing that the Free State men would triumph unless they interposed. He helieved that more than 5000 illegal votes were cast and that the inhabitants were driven from the polis, not heing permitted to vote in some districts. As to the abrogation of the Missouri compromise he thought it rather hard that the Committee.

Mr. Vaughan presented a petition from Prerice, Henderson, & Oshorne, together with resolution, allowing them to dig a well in frosof their office provided it causes no obstruction the sidewalk or street, which was adopted.

Mr. Moore, from Committee on Fire Depar faith should now lose the little advantage they gained from it. He presumed the genilemen were familiar with the story of the Vicar of Wakefed and remembered how. Moses traded his horse for a lot of green spectacles with shagreen cases. He did not suppose the Vicar was proud of that bargain, but he had never heard that the horse jockey after using up his horse had come back to demand his green spectacles again. presented a resolution authoristing the keeper of the work-house to sell ll. li. Higdon what stone he may want for repaying the alley between Walnut and Chestnut and Fourth and Fifth sts., which was adopted.

Mr. Vaughan presented resolutions allowing Nelson & Davis $1 50 and H. J. Mead $1 75 for repairs to market-houses, which were adopt-Mr. Douglas replied to some of Mr. Col of.

Mr. Haydon, from the Alms-house Committee, reported an ordinance for the regulation of the Louisville Alms house, which was read a second time and passed.

An ordinance from the Board of Aldermen to establish the Police Department and providing for the appointment of the Watchmen of the city of Louisville, was read once and ordered to a second reading, which was dispensed with.

The ordinance was then taken up by sections.
